Castle Weddings

Standing proudly on Atholl Estates, in the heart of Highland Perthshire, Blair Castle is the perfect fairytale wedding venue with one of the most spectacular ballrooms and Georgian state rooms in the country.

The Ballroom

Designed by the Scottish architect David Bryce, the Ballroom was completed in 1876.

Truly Scottish in style and setting, the enchanting Ballroom gives a sense of scale, history and occasion for a wedding for up to 220 guests. Created for the 7th Duke of Atholl's private army, the Atholl Highlanders, and is still used today for their annual ball.

The ballroom has excellent acoustics, a large stage, two open fires, a fine dance floor and a state-of-the-art lighting system; all the ingredients for the perfect party.

The Details:

- Wedding ceremonies for up to 300 guests and dining for 60–220 guests.
- Your guests can proceed up a red carpet and through one of the finest baronial entrance halls in Scotland before heading down the dramatic long corridor and into the ballroom.
- Beyond the ballroom is the Banvie Hall accessed via a 'secret' door, the Banvie Hall is a contemporary option within the castle, perfect for a bar, ceremony, or reception.
- Exclusive use weddings (including access to other rooms upon request) from £6,500.
- Expert wedding coordinator to help plan your big day.

The State Dining Room

In addition to the castle's ground floor where the entrance hall, ballroom and Banvie hall are, one can, under special circumstances, extend the wedding to include the State Dining Room.

The Grand state Georgian dining room on the first floor has picturesque views across the hills of Perthshire. Our formal dining room can accommodate wedding ceremonies for up to 75 people or a wedding breakfast for up to 60 guests.

Pricing is available upon request.

West lawn and Hercules Garden

A perfect outdoor addition to your wedding at Blair Castle, the private West Lawn is accessible only through a locked door on the castle's ground floor. This exclusive garden boasts unrivalled views across Highland Perthshire and is an ideal venue for an outdoor wedding ceremony or drinks reception for up to 160 guests.

The Hercules Garden is a truly memorable space for capturing the perfect wedding day photographs. The nine-acre garden incorporates a landscaped pond, a Chinese-style bridge, a folly and an orchard of over 100 fruit trees.

St Bride's Kirk

Tranquil and beautiful, St Brides's Kirk is the picture-perfect spot for your wedding day. The ruin of the kirk dates back to Celtic times, and is a popular venue for wedding ceremonies. The ancient walls and open roof give it a historic and romantic atmosphere in which to exchange your wedding vows.

Perfect for an intimate wedding, the kirk provides a quirky alternative to a traditional church wedding. This is also a popular space for those wanting to renew their vows.

Diana's Grove

Diana's Grove is a secluded woodland nestled in Blair Castle Gardens. Home to some of the country's finest and tallest trees, in a space of two acres. The Banvie Burn running through the middle, under historic stone bridges makes for a beautiful setting.

Brimming with mystery and charm, say 'I Do' surrounded by nature and birdsong.
